INTERNATIONAL STUDENT ASSISTANCE POLICY

We are excited you are planning to study at University of Northwestern – St. Paul! We care deeply about the welfare of every student, especially those who may come from another country. Some students may be surprised by the many adjustments required in living and studying in a new culture. As you transition to a new learning environment, possibly with a new language and new social customs, we desire to support you in every way possible—even your financial transition.

University of Northwestern will determine the average amount of institutional aid available to all students and will set an average grant amount available to international students. This amount or a portion of it will be granted based on the student's demonstrated need as determined from this application.
